Victims of Crime and Leniency

A NOTE FROM EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, MIRIAM SHEHANE

I can't believe it is July already. We have been so busy on so many projects that I, for one, feel as if I'm going around in circles. Our first priority, though, is the crime victims. I have been amazed how Shelly and Joyce have been able to help so many hurting victims, yet find time to coordinate the many functions VOCAL has within the year. One way, I have noticed is at every event we have Shelly's husband, Chuck, and her two girls, Matlei and Jordan, who are working as hard as or harder than any of us. For Shelly, we sometimes have four people working for one paycheck. I keep wondering if at some point they aren't going to ask when they are supposed to be compensated. Joyce is the person that the 24-hour phone line is directed to; therefore, if we had to pay her for all the overtime she puts in we would be in much more financial trouble than we already are. Speaking of funding, we have been informed that VOCAL's ADECA grant is being cut again plus we lost $50,000 in the general fund budget and another 17 percent of the $100,000 designated could be reduced.

God has always directed someone our way over these 25 years and it has enabled us to become the powerful organization we are today, though operating on a shoestring budget. This could not have happened without all our volunteers and the faith you have in VOCAL. We are desperately working on legislation that will give us the funding to do great things for crime victims all over the State of Alabama, but with all of your help we can make it happen. Please keep our organization in your prayers and I will try to keep you posted on our progress.

THE HONORABLE ELLEN BROOKS RECOGNIZED FOR HER PURSUIT OF JUSTICE

The Honorable Ellen Brooks, District Attorney of the 15th Judicial Circuit, was honored by V.O.C.A.L. Angel House with the unveiling of her portrait. Ms. Brooks is well known throughout Alabama for her leadership in the pursuit of justice for victims and their families. Ms. Brooks' initiatives reinstated victims' rights in state agencies which had ignored them previously. Her portrait was unveiled at the Annual DA's Conference in Orange Beach, Alabama.

The portrait will be displayed at the State headquarters of V.O.C.A.L. Angel House in Montgomery.

PAROLE HEARING FOR QUENETTE SHEHANE'S MURDERER TO BE HELD AUGUST 4 Jerry Lee Jones, AIS #131136

Five days before Christmas in 1976, Quenette Shehane went to the corner convenience store to buy a bottle of salad dressing. She had finished college at Birmingham Southern and had just completed her job at Parisian. She was packed and ready to go home for the holidays and to start her new journey in the Master's Program at Auburn University. She had decided to have one last meal with her fiancée. When she drove to the corner store, she only had $2.00 in her hand; not even her purse. She was coming right back (so she thought). Three horrible men abducted Quenette from the store as she was coming out. They repeatedly raped her and then shot her many times. They then threw her naked body out of the car by a ravine. Jerry Lee Jones had three trials. The first came back with Capital Murder and he received a sentence of death, as well as at the second trial. The third trial, and five years later, the jury came back with a lesser included charge of Murder. Jones received only a Life Sentence. Please help us protest by letter (Alabama Board of Pardons and Paroles, P.O. Box 302405, Montgomery, AL 36130-2405--include the inmate's name and AIS number) or in person.

CHAPTER NEWS

JEFFERSON COUNTY CHAPTER      Roebuck Precinct, Red Lane Road, Birmingham, 1st Thursday of each month, 3 p.m.
Chapter President: Carol Melton, (205) 841-1465; Email carolmeltonb@bellsouth.net
Chapter Mailing Address: 4162 51st Avenue North, Birmingham, Alabama 35217

Chapter President, Carol Melton, wishes to thank everyone who helped the vigil turn out so well for Jefferson County. She may have missed mentioning the names of some, so please know that each and every one of you is appreciated for your hard work.

Chapter members attended parole hearings in May and they all turned out well. It is truly amazing how all of the defendants find God. They all think that because they take classes and get their G.E.D. that it wipes everything out that they did. No matter how horrible the crime they should be paroled.

About fifteen people attended the May meeting. As par for the course, some trials have been put off, which is so hard for the victims.

Chapter members also went to Montgomery in June for parole hearings. We have acquired two nicknames. Jeanette Carr and Doris Hancock call us the Get Along Gang, and the Parole Board calls us the Birmingham Gang.

We had a plea bargain for one of the defendants in the Seth Olafson trial. Also the sentencing was put off for Carley Taylor.

SHELBY COUNTY CHAPTER      Owens House, Columbiana, 2nd Saturday of each month, 2 p.m.
Chapter President: Johnnie Doss Page, (205) 669-4238
Chapter Mailing Address: P. O. Box 32, Columbiana, Alabama 35051

The Chapter held its annual golf tournament fundraiser on May 17 at Magnolia Hills Golf Course in Columbiana. We appreciate all of those who sponsored holes and those who played in the tournament. Chapter President, Johnnie Page, attended parole hearings on July 1 to protest paroles for all of the inmates scheduled for hearings.

SHOALS CHAPTER      Christian Faith Church, 640 County Road 323, Florence, 2nd Tuesday of each month, 6:30 p.m.
Chapter President: Denny Kimbrel, (256) 757-1354; Email bamafnatk@aol.com
Chapter Mailing Address: 442 County Road 111, Killen, Alabama 35645

Emerson Gatewood, age 37, was convicted for the Capital Murder of Parunta Turner, age 29, in Florence. After only 5 minutes all 12 Jurors voted for life without parole. The sentencing will be August 8. Gatewood's two co-defendants, Kelvin Hines (age 31) and Steven Harrison (age 30) pleaded guilty to Murder with both getting a life sentence with possibility of parole. Some members from VOCAL supported the Turner family throughout the trial.

Kenny Strickland was indicted for murder, arson, and robbery, of Rusty Earnest from Rogersville. The pretrial & trial will be coming up soon. The Earnest family has joined VOCAL and is attending our meetings.

David and William Nard, father and son, were indicted for Capital Murder and the co-defendant Greg Willinton indicted for murder in the death of Greg Wright from Green Hill. These pre trials and trials are also coming up soon. Members of VOCAL are supporting the Wright family.

Shoals Chapter would like to thank all that supported our Musical Fund Raiser back in April and a special thanks to Janet Carr & Doris Hancock for coming from Montgomery to speak on behalf of Attorney General Troy King. At the end of the day we had a balloon release in honor of our loved ones. A big thanks to Houston and Henry County D.A. Doug Valeska from Dothan for the money he gave each VOCAL Chapter. And thanks to the Shoals members who worked so hard during the weeks before our fundraiser.

SOUTHEAST CHAPTER      Wiregrass Angel House, 105 N. Bell, Dothan, 2nd Monday of each month, 6:30 p.m.

Trust God in the sad times, ask Him for strength, and joy will return. This is His promise.

Prayer for the day: “When I feel lonely and troubled, Lord, help me to remember that You are always near me with a loving hand to give me strength. Amen.”

We attended the open house for Wiregrass Angel House July 1st. It was a great day. Thanks to all who attended and helped make this day wonderful. VOCAL members and those who wish to attend our monthly meetings, we will meet August 11th, 6:30 pm at the Wiregrass Angel House, corner of Main and North Bell Street.

We meet quarterly the 2nd Thursday night except July and December which are at different locations. Chapter President, Betty Holland, did an editorial in The Tuscaloosa News opposing the Senate Bill 15. She also wrote Governor Riley a letter opposing his signing of the bill.

DEJA'VU

When a loved one is murdered it's never really over. As victims we think we will feel better after the police apprehend the criminal or after we get to trial or after the criminal goes to prison, but we usually leave the courtroom feeling there is no justice even if we get the death penalty (which are few and far between). We will probably die of old age before they're executed due to appellate judges. Even if we should be fortunate enough to actually have one executed during our lifetime; it is still not justice. No criminal's life could ever equal the life of our loved one.

Just a few days ago I went into my boss's office and tears were rolling down her cheeks. She was looking through Quenette's book, getting ready for the parole hearing of Jerry Lee Jones. After 31 years it's not over and the heart wrenching terror Quenette endured on December 20, 1976 at the hands of the three men that abducted her is permanently branded in the minds of her family.

Quenette was a gifted vocalist, just graduated from Birmingham Southern College and accepted at Auburn for their Masters program in education. She was looking forward to teaching children in public education. She was very petite 4ft. 10in. tall, less than 100 lbs., and no match for even one of her abductors. Not only did these three rapist/murderers take Quenette's life, they also took her family's life as they knew it. Life would never be the same for Miriam, Edward, Sonya or Jon, or Quenette's finance, Ramsey. Quenette's case has changed lives for all victims in Alabama.

Victims had no rights at that time. Miriam has devoted her life to changing that in Quenette's honor and Edward has been there helping and supporting her. Only in the last few years Sonya began to deal with her grief; during the trial years she was always Quenette's little sister and could never let her guard down. And Jon being the big brother had a lot of unresolved issues.

Just surviving this horrible trauma without losing their minds is a miracle and changing the lives of victims in Alabama has brought honor to Quenette and the Shehane family. God Bless Them.

Joyce Miller, LPC

SAYING GOODBYE

Goodbyes are so hard to say that I just normally avoid them and pretend everyone is still in their place. It is with sadness that we must say goodbye to Jill Garvin as the director of Homicide Survivors in Huntsville. She will be leaving in August to move to Colorado. She is leaving Victim Services at this time to renew her spirit before she suffers burnout. I have really enjoyed working with Jill. We have consulted on several cases and often sharing a parole hearing for the benefit of the victims' families. It is so important that each agency for victim services work together. Jill has always been easy to work with and accommodating to us. Thank you, Jill. We will miss you greatly.

Recently as we were preparing to open the Wiregrass Angel House new facility, we contacted Child Protect in Montgomery for advice. We planned a child's play therapy room for children that have witnessed violence or had lost a parent to violence. Crystal Gregory was so very gracious at our request to visit their facility. The staff met with us, showed us each room, explained each function and purpose, and sent us a CD of their facility.

Due to their hospitality we have a really great children's play therapy room in Dothan. Thank you Crystal and all the staff of Child Protect.

THE OPENING OF WIREGRASS ANGEL HOUSE

For close to a year now, the DA's office staff, local law enforcement, and volunteers have worked tirelessly at the Wiregrass Angel House. They have cleaned, cut grass, and painted to make this a special home for victims' families. Finally we have the first house in Alabama where victims' families can stay. It is a place of solace and refuge; a place to meet and have a support system. The home and land were donated by the Flowers family of Dothan. As Attorney General Troy King stated in his speech, "No matter how difficult the journey may be, this lets you know there are people who will walk along side of you." Wiregrass Angel House offers hope. We can't change what happened but we can help families get through the most devastating time in their lives.

This home also features a children's play therapy room; a place where children who have witnessed violence can come to receive help through their trauma. Children who have witnessed violence and have unresolved grief are five times more likely to commit suicide and nine times more likely to drop out of school. It is imperative that we reach these children so they can receive treatment early.

Wiregrass Angel House first began with seed money from District Attorney Doug Valeska, of the 20th Judicial Circuit. The other district attorneys from the Wiregrass Area, Kirke Adams, Ben Reeves, and Gary McAliley came on board and helped us realize the dream of Angel House. We have such great support from our local law enforcement. The Wiregrass Area has seen the need for our services and knows we are available 24 hours a day.

A REPORT FROM VOCAL BOARD CHAIRMAN, PAT JONES

The Board of Directors meets quarterly. Our last meeting was July 15, 2008. The board members are: Pat Jones, Miriam Shehane, Mitzie Wheat, Kim Ziglar Martin, Rep. Mary Sue McClurkin, Rep. Billy Beasley, Rep. Cam Ward, Rep. Priscilla Dunn, Rep. Paul DeMarco, Monica Spears, Capt. Lewis Fannin, Sgt. Dexter Cunningham, Scotty Wells, Pennie Buckelew and Attorney General Troy King. We appreciate their willingness to serve on the board.

The board heard reports on Governor's Conference, Open House for Wiregrass Angel House in Dothan, Legislative issues, and Shrimp Boil in Gulf Shores. We discussed having open house for the new VOCAL Office in the near future. The Community Service Program is being utilized to help in some areas of the VOCAL Office such as yard work. We discussed the SB 15, "Alabama Medical Furlough Act" that was passed during the Special Session the last week in May. This bill is to let terminally ill inmates out of prison. We talked about the budget cuts that VOCAL and the Angel House will be getting in FY 2009. We talked about doing fundraisers in Montgomery and/or Birmingham. If anyone has any ideas, please let us know.

We discussed the Quenette Shehane Act and hope to get it passed in the next Legislative session. The Board voted unanimously for the name of the bill to be called the Quenette Shehane Act. The name of the bill was chosen because Miriam Shehane, co-founder of VOCAL, has dedicated her life to victims across this state. Quenette was her daughter who was murdered December 20, 1976. The purpose of this legislation is to provide permanent funding for VOCAL. VOCAL is made up of volunteers that provide emotional support to other victims. Services, including, but not limited to, immediate crisis intervention, crime scene clean-up, victims' rights and criminal justice support, assistance with funeral plans, and assistance with crime victims' compensation programs provided to families of victims of homicide in the state. In 2007, with a staff of three people, VOCAL helped over 575 family members of homicide, counseled 155 family members during crisis, assisted 11 families with funeral arrangements, provided on-going therapy for 450 individuals, trained 180 police cadets, attended meetings with prosecutors and 24 families, protested 120 paroles with families of homicide victims, conducted 11 crime scene clean-ups, and supported 255 family members at trials, sentencing, preliminary hearings, and motion hearings. Passage of this bill would enable us to put one victim advocate in each judicial circuit in Alabama.

Alabama Crime Victims' Scholarship Fund--A scholarship fund has been established at Auburn University for the benefit of students who were dependents of homicide victims and who were 25 years of age or under at the time the crime was committed. To be eligible, a student must be an undergraduate who has attained admission to Auburn University as a beginning freshman or transfer student. The student must have attained a satisfactory academic record in all prior courses completed and must demonstrate need as determined by the SFA Committee. Preference will be given to students who have financial need; however, if no student can be identified with financial need, the financial criteria may be waived. Interested students must complete an Auburn University Scholarship Application and submit it to the Office of Student Financial Aid. For more information, call the VOCAL office at 1-800-239-3219.

Adam Lucia, a recipient of the VOCAL scholarship, sent this letter to us.

To everyone who is involved in V.O.C.A.L.:

I am writing this letter to formally thank V.O.C.A.L. for choosing me, Adam Lucia, as a recipient of the V.O.C.A.L. Scholarship. I attended Auburn University from fall of 1998 until December 2002. I graduated from the Horticulture Department with an emphasis in Nursery and Greenhouse Production. I am currently employed in the Birmingham area for a company called Heritage Lawn and Tree Care.

The majority of my time is spent in residential and commercial landscapes. I fertilize ornamental plants and turf grass, I diagnose insect and disease problems and correct them, and I apply pre-emergence, fungicides, and herbicides. I am learning how to maintain a landscape; and it is fun. Of course some days are more frustrating than others, but I enjoy what I am doing.

In the landscape, I appreciate seeing a 100 ft. tall Dawn Redwood tree, and smelling the fragrant bloom of a Winter Honeysuckle, and seeing the yellow/orange fall color of a Sugar Maple or a Chinese Pistache. All of these characteristics and much, much more... is what I learned at Auburn University and at my current job. I cannot say how much I appreciate the opportunity to go through college and not have to worry about paying tuition.

I did not really worry about paying tuition; that was my mom's worry. But, I do thank V.O.C.A.L. for taking that stress off of her. In turn, that took some stress of me. My mom, Barbara Lucia at the time, was a single parent trying to put one of her sons through college. This was not an easy task financially, for a single parent. So not only am I thankful, but Barbara Lucia Stewart is very, very thankful for your generosity.

One last thing that I wanted to mention about the scholarship was, not only did this gift help us out financially, but it also made me more studious. I needed to hold a 3.0 GPA (or better) to renew my scholarship each year. To me, this meant that I had to do everything I could to keep my grades up. In the end, all of those late night study sessions, review classes, extra credit projects, and going to those 7 a.m. and 8 a.m. classes have paid off. Today I am working in the field, and everything that we talked about in class is relevant. So I thank you from the bottom of my heart, and the whole Lucia family thanks you for your support.

Sincerely, Adam Lucia

ANNUAL SHRIMP BOIL AND BBQ

VOCAL Angel House's 3rd Annual Shrimp Boil and BBQ was held July 9th in Gulf Shores, Alabama. This is a time where we say thank you to assistant district attorneys, district attorneys, investigators, and their families for all they do throughout the year for victims and their families. A special thank you to Keith and Dedra Barnett and Chuck Linderman for all their help.

INJUSTICE SERVED CRIME VICTIMS AGAIN

We crime victims never cease to be appalled with what goes on in the world of politics. Senate Bill 15 and House Bill 47 were introduced during the Special Session for the Education Budget the last week of May. It passed and Governor Riley signed it into law after much protest from victims and caring citizens in Alabama. The bill is called "Alabama Medical Furlough Act". It is not a bill for "state employees". It is for prisoners of violent crimes committed against innocent victims. Only capital murderers (those on death row and life without parole) and sex offenders are excluded in this bill. We were given a meeting with some members of the governor's staff. A few of our concerns were addressed and we were promised to be able to review the regulation before it is printed. We still feel this bill is much too vague and broad, and for this reason, crime victims need more consideration when legislation is introduced that has such traumatic effects on them.

We are thankful for the legislators that have empathy for victims and are not just concerned with dollars. Rep. Paul DeMarco voted against this bill in committee because he said that it was too vague and he also spoke about it Saturday and said that he had a problem with the terminology "disease related to aging" and the "55 years old". The bill should have had more consideration before passing. Rep. Billy Beasley tried to get two amendments in the House on Saturday to exclude murderers from being released and have a panel to make the final decision on those released, but his efforts failed. Rep. Mac Gipson also expressed his concern of the language in the bill being too vague and he supported Beasley's amendments because they were favorable to victims and their families. Those in the House of Representatives that voted against SB15 Saturday, May 31, 2008 were: Allen, Baker (A), Baker (L), Beasley, Bentley, Boothe, Bridges, Collier, Davis, DeMarco, Fincher, Galliher, Gaston, Gipson, Greeson, Hammon, Hill, Hubbard, Ison, Lewis, Love, Martin, Mask, McClurkin, McCutcheon, McMillan, Millican, Oden, Spicer, Thomas (E), Treadaway, Vance, Ward, Wood, Wren. Those in the Senate that voted against the bill on Friday, May 30, 2008 were: Bishop, Beason, Brooks, and Holley.

Pat Jones, VOCAL Board President

PROTESTING PAROLE

When you get a letter from the Pardons and Parole Board you are devastated, but the following ideas may help in trying to get the Parole Board to deny parole for the inmate. The letter from the Board will say that you do not have to be present, but it does make a difference.

1. Make plans to go to speak at parole hearing. It is important to be there. It does make a difference. This is very stressful on you but pray for God's strength. He will be with you.
2. Start a petition and letter drive. This helps. Get law enforcement that worked on the crime to write a letter. Get friends, neighbors, church family, and co-workers to write letters and sign petitions. Letters should be addressed to the Alabama Board of Pardons and Paroles, P.O. Box 302405, Montgomery, AL 36130-2405 and should include the inmate's name and AIS number.
3. Contact the following agencies to write a letter and/or protest at the hearing:
  - a. Governor Bob Riley
State Capitol
Montgomery, AL 36130
Patty Simpkins (Director, Constituent Services)
(334)242-7100 or 1-800-591-4217
  - b. Attorney General Troy King
11 South Union Street
Montgomery, AL 36130
VSO Janette Carr or Doris Hancock

P.O. Box 4449
Montgomery, AL 36103
(334)262-7197 or 1-800-239-3219
  - d. District Attorney's Office in your area where the crime occurred
  - e. Police and Sheriff's Office where crime occurred
